Rearranging

1. Lessons can be scheduled for the needs of the student and the availability of the teacher.
2. It is the responsibility of the student to attend their lesson or to give enough notice of rearrangement (more than 24 hours).
3. If the teacher is unable to make the lesson, they will list all their availability and give the student the opportunity to rearrange at their earliest convenience (if this is not possible then point three of the cancellation procedure will apply).

Cancellation

1. The teacher requires a notice of 24 hours to cancel a lesson. Failure to do so will mean that the student is responsible for paying the fee for the lesson.
2. If the student is sick and is unable to come to their lesson with under 24 hours notice will be exempt and the student will not need to pay the lesson fee*
3. If the teacher cancels a lesson at any point and rearrangement is not possible, the student is not responsible to pay the fee for the lesson.

* If the student has cancelled due to sickness with less than 24 hours notice more than three times in three months, the student will be required to pay the lesson fee (unless the teacher is aware of a student's long-standing medical condition).
